The Essentials

Advocacy /ad-və-kə-sē

(n) The act or process of supporting a cause, policy, or proposal.

Why We Advocate

"What happens in Washington, D.C. has the potential to drastically change our municipal markets."

Goal

Promote	Promote the integrity of municipal markets.
Raise	Raise public awareness about the importance of the securities market to our communities.
Support	Support our partners in advancing sensible public finance policy that allows our communities to tap into markets and access affordable capital.
Serve	Serve as a brain trust and authority on public finance law to thought leaders and federal decisionmakers.

Our Priorities

A bove all else... We support the existing tax treatment for qualified municipal bonds. Congress and the administration should reject efforts to eliminate or reduce the tax exemption of municipal bond interest.

Our Priorities

Modernize	Modernize Bank Qualified Debt
Restore	Restore Tax-Exempt Advance Refunding Bonds
Expand	Expand Qualified Private Activity Bonds
Create	Create a Direct Subsidy Bond Program

"Abnormal" Order

Emergency Legislation

Leadership Demands

Reconciliation

- A procedure used by the U.S. Congress to amend federal revenues and expenditures more easily than possible under normal order.
- Most notably, the process allows the U.S. Senate to pass qualifying legislation without needing 60 votes to invoke cloture, thereby needing only a majority vote (51) to avoid the threat of an indefinite filibuster.
- Numerous restrictions: "Byrd Wash"

The Essentials

Rulemaking

- Fill in the details and define terms/concepts from the statute and set up compliance regimes.
- Statute frequently empowers Administrative rulemaking:
 - "... Secretary shall issue rules..."
 - "...covered agencies shall promulgate rules..."
 - "...Commission shall adopt rules..."

Agency Rulemaking and Guidance

Statute

Legislation that is usually conceptual and empowers agencies to flesh out details (nitty gritty).

Regulation and Rules

Binding agency mandates promulgated through a structured rulemaking process.

Guidance

Supplemental documents that provide clarity but are not binding.
